

Workshop on Conducting Knowledge Audits

A knowledge audit is the first step in finding out what the critical knowledge assets used to deliver your business objectives are, the knowledge gaps, and the issues around knowledge retention, transfer or reuse. Once you have conducted a knowledge audit you will then be able to build a sound KM strategy and roadmap upon it.

This March, in partnership with the Securities Commission Malaysia, we will be organising a public workshop on conducting knowledge audits.

Event Details

Date Thursday, 19th Mar 2015
Time 2pm - 5pm
Venue Conference Hall, Securities Commission Malaysia, 3 Persiaran Bukit Kiara, Bukit Kiara, 50490 Kuala Lumpur (location map)

Note: You are encouraged to bring your own laptop. This workshop is free-of-charge; it is sponsored by the Securities Commission Malaysia. Limited seats are available.

Workshop Outline

This workshop provides a step-by-step technique for conducting a knowledge audit to assess KM needs and opportunities in any organisation.

By the end of the workshop you will:

- Understand the different forms of organisation knowledge and their matching strategies
- Be able to build and analyse activity-based knowledge maps
- Be able to develop recommendations for operational KM interventions based on knowledge maps
- Be familiar with a process for conducting a knowledge audit exercise
- Understand how knowledge maps can be leveraged by different stakeholders in the organisation

Who should attend?

- Knowledge management practitioners
- KM students and academics
- Records and information managers
- Organisational development practitioners
- HR professionals
- IT managers tasked with knowledge and information management responsibilities.
